

CONCRETE

Great hair starts with great hairdressers

Welcome to Concrete Academy

When we started out in hair we were lucky enough to have excellent teachers, and when you've had that experience and gone on to have a successful career doing what you love, it makes you want to share the joy.

We founded Concrete Academy as a way of sharing not just our technical expertise, but also our passion, our experience of running salons and our experience of teaching. This is a place to come and grow your skills, a place to grow your confidence and a place to develop yourself in a relaxed, friendly and creative atmosphere. We have a range of courses, so find the one that suits your level and drop us a line. We'd love to hear from you.

Email us here or call us on 020 7836 8631

Contemporary Classic Cutting

Skill Level: Newly qualified

If you are looking to improve, refresh or consolidate your skills in classic cutting techniques and build confidence in your cutting and styling work then this is a great course for you.

Led by Fabrice Ringuet with one of our visiting guest stylists, this 2-day course gives you the all round skill base so you can confidently deliver your work to a consistently high level.

We'll cover the theory of how to produce foundational cuts with detailed demonstrations of the core techniques supported by guided one-to-one practical work sessions.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £399

You'll need your own scissors, razor, combs, brushes, hairdryer, clips and cutting collar.

Contemporary Men's Cutting

Skill Level: Newly qualified

This is a great course that's all about setting you up with new ideas and techniques that you can translate straight away in your own work. For qualified stylists of any level this course is a really useful way to develop your skills and give yourself the confidence to create the latest men's looks.

Fabrice Ringuet and British Hairdresser of the Year Jody Taylor team up to help you explore the latest trends in men's hairdressing and get comfortable with the use of different tools and techniques including scissor over comb, clippers and razor cutting. You will learn how to create bespoke shapes and styles for both short and long hair.

Over the course of 2 days, we'll demonstrate examples of the latest men's cutting techniques and go through a detailed demonstration of the advanced techniques, then go through what we've learnt with one-to-one guided practical work sessions.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £399

You'll need your own scissors, razor, combs, brushes, hairdryer, clips and cutting collar.

Classic Dressing Techniques

Skill Level: Newly qualified

This is the course for 'wow' hair, big day hair, the kind of hair that people will still be looking at pictures of in 25 years. The kind of hair that needs to be perfect. This course covers all the skills you'll need to confidently create the kind of outstanding hair up styles, ponytails, buns and pleats that will be picture perfect.

Fabrice Ringuet, along with a visiting guest stylists, will give you the basic skills and knowledge to enable you to dress hair to a high standard. You will learn classic techniques as well as quick and easy methods to produce show-stopping looks for both special events and everyday wear.

Over 2 days we'll cover the theory of how to produce classic dressing techniques, give you detailed demonstrations of the core techniques and work together in one-to-one guided practical sessions.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £399

You'll need your own combs, brushes, hairdryer, tongs, pins, grips and clips.

Session & Editorial Dressing

Skill Level: Qualified, with understanding of dressing hair

We're lucky enough to have some very talented editorial stylists on our team which means we've worked on photoshoots, fashion work, editorial and catwalk work for some world famous names. This course is designed to share the skills and abilities we've learnt and give you the confidence to be part of a creative team.

You'll spend 2 days with us, covering the basic skills and knowledge needed to work on creative projects including session work, photo shoots and catwalk and gaining the valuable experience that means you'll know what it takes to be part of a session team.

During our time together we'll look at the latest trends in fashion, session and editorial dressing, take part in a demonstration of key forthcoming trends and experience one-on-one guided practical work sessions.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £399

You'll need your own combs, brushes, hairdryer, tongs, pins, grips and clips.

Contemporary Creative Cutting

Skill Level: Min. 3 years experience

This a fantastic inspirational workshop for experienced stylists. It's 2 days out of the normal day-to-day to kickstart your creative juices and soak up new ideas and techniques that will inspire you, your clients and your team, sending you back to your salon with a new spring in your step and a new creative confidence.

Fabrice Ringuet will lead this creative course with a guest stylist, and together you'll explore new ideas and techniques that will inspire you to create bespoke shapes that you can translate into your own work.

The course will include presentations of some of the latest cutting techniques and detailed demonstrations of advanced techniques, followed by guided practical work sessions conducted on a one to one basis.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £399

You'll need your own combs, brushes, hairdryer, tongs, pins, grips and clips.

Creative Commercial Colouring

Skill Level: Colourists with min. 1 year experience

In this creative course we'll cover the practical skills you need to mix, blend and apply beautiful colour for very personalised looks.

Over the course of two days Fabrice Ringuet and a guest stylist will explore the techniques you need to produce modern fashion colour looks that you can take back and use in your work straight away.

We'll cover the methodology of how to produce modern fashion colours, go through a detailed demonstration of the core techniques and refine your skills with guided practical work sessions conducted on a one to one basis

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £499

You'll need your own combs, brushes, hairdryer, tongs, pins, grips and clips.

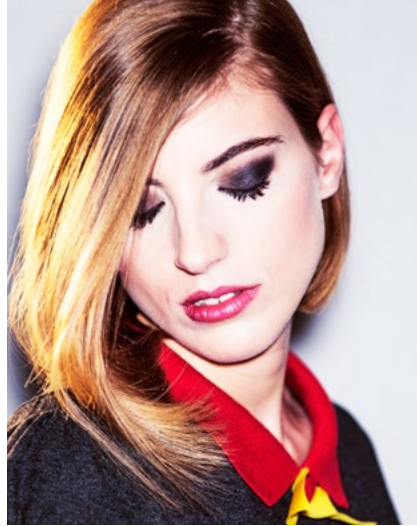

Ultimate Highlighting

Skill Level: Colourists with min. 1 year experience

This is a great practical course that will help you deliver true colour excellence in the art of highlighting hair. We'll help you develop your skills to achieve a higher quality result with more in-depth consultation and greater personalisation.

Creativity is a big part of beautiful highlighting and course leader Fabrice Ringuet, together with a guest stylist will lead an exploration of the techniques required to achieve highlighting excellence that you'll be able to put straight into use when you're back in the salon.

Over two days we'll cover the methodology of how to produce outstanding highlights, with detailed demonstrations of the core techniques and one-on-one guided practical work sessions.

2-day courses taking place over Sunday and Monday

10am - 5pm at Concrete Academy

Course cost: £499

You'll need your own combs, brushes, hairdryer, tongs, pins, grips and clips.

ADD ON A DAY OF IMMERSION IN LONDON'S INFLUENTIAL FASHION DESIGN CULTURE

London's famous as a cultural hub for lots of very good reasons, and we're lucky to be part of a community of creatives from every discipline - art, fashion, music, design and more. We'd love you to join our world and take new knowledge and ideas from British hair culture back into your work.

Plunge into the influential London scene with us, excite your creativity and take home fresh inspirations to incorporate into your work with a day that includes discussion of the cultural influences on hair fashion, gallery visits, a tour of some of London's most creative neighbourhoods and even a shopping break. We'll finish up with dinner, and for those that want it, a trip on one of London's famous double-decker buses.

The Fashion Design Culture Immersion takes place on a Tuesday, from 10am - 9pm and starts at Concrete Academy.

The cost is £99 including dinner.

Drinks at the pub afterwards are on you!